

benbow a lever...

benbow says...

pandra
vynn'ta
eva?

(Or for those of you who aren't already fluent in Cornish... what would you like to drink?)

By attending Pirates games this season you'll be able to pick up some useful words and phrases in Cornish, guided by the Pirates' mascot, Captain Benbow.

To hear these phrases spoken and find out more about Cornish visit

www.magakernow.org.uk

For a chance to win two hospitality tickets to the last home game of the season go to the Playing Place section of the website and fill in the online form.

Whether you're in the beer tent, the club house or a pub in Camborne, here are some ideas in Cornish for drinks you might like to enjoy after today's game.

So, tereba nessa - until next time - agas gweles!

Cornish Language Development Office
County Hall, Truro, Cornwall, TR1 3AY

01872 323497

cornishlanguage@cornwall.gov.uk

cornish language partnership
maga