

benbow a lever...

benbow says...

by tre,
pol &
pen

...You shall know all Cornishmen

(or at least you can discover the key to what some of the place-names around you in Cornwall mean!)

Tre means a settlement or homestead – e.g. Treneglos is the house by the church

Pol means a pool or a pond – e.g. Polzeath is the dry pool

Pen means a head or end – e.g. Penryn is the end of the promontory

Below are some places in Cornwall.
Can you match them up with their meanings in English?

camborne

looe

penzance

lake

house on the beach

st piran's
cove

perranporth

tywardreath

crooked
hill

holy
head

By attending Pirates games this season you'll be able to pick up some useful words and phrases in Cornish, guided by the Pirates' mascot, Captain Benbow.

For the answers to this quiz, as well as further information about Cornish and a chance to win two hospitality tickets to the last home game of the season, visit the Cornish Language Partnership website at www.magakernow.org.uk. The answer to the quiz and the competition can be found within the Playing Place section.

So, tereba nessa - until next time - agas gweles!

Cornish Language Development Office
County Hall, Truro, Cornwall, TR1 3AY

☎ 01872 323497

✉ cornishlanguage@cornwall.gov.uk

cornish language partnership maga